

Visibility Tools: Precast Product Transparency

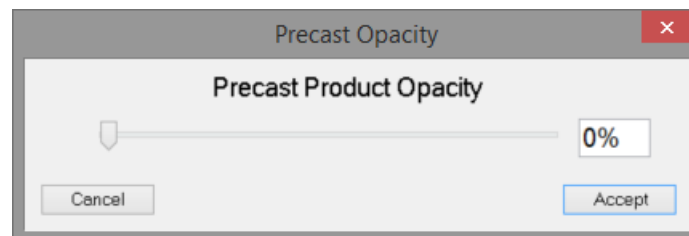

Programmed Result of Tool:

This tool sets the transparency of all structural framing elements in the active view to the desired amount

Steps to Perform tool Operation:

These tools will automatically update the transparency for structural framing elements in the Visibility Graphics of the current view with the appropriate percentage.

1) User clicks the Opacity tool and uses the slider or manually types in the desired percentage of transparency for structural framing elements in the active view.

Known Limitations:

- NA